

The Story of IIM & TM

Intentional Interim Ministry began in a formal way in the USA in 1980 with the inauguration of the Interim Ministry Network (IMN). The IMN is a cooperative venture between several denominations to help churches and organisations undergoing major transitions to benefit from the short term ministry or leadership of an interim specialist.

In 1993 the Uniting Church Synod of NSW and the Interim Ministry Network in the USA agreed to establish a training team in Australia. The School of Continuing Education (SCE) in the NSW Synod Board of Education is authorised to provide IMN accredited training.

In 2005 the IMN and the SCE implemented a major revision of the training package. Rather than one major single course of training for IIM, we now offer an introductory course "Fundamentals of Transitional Ministry" available for all leaders, followed by a longer program for people who satisfy entry requirements to train as IIM specialists.

Fundamentals of Transitional Ministry

"Fundamentals of Transitional Ministry" is a three day program designed to give participants an introduction to the key concepts and practices of ministering with congregations and agencies in times of transition. (Isn't that all of them nowadays?) While it is a stand-alone program, it is also the first phase of training that leads to being qualified as an Intentional Interim Minister. Thus, it is useful in itself for anyone in lay or ordained ministry, and also for those exploring whether they are called to Intentional Interim Ministry

IIM Specialist Training

For people in ministry wishing to go beyond "Fundamentals of Transitional Ministry", the School of Continuing Education conducts IIM training. An application and a recommendation from your presbytery, diocese or equivalent are essential. This can be undertaken as a one-week fulltime residential program, including evenings, to be offered in Melbourne and Hunter Presbytery in 2011. The program is followed by a supervised project. Cost: Early-Bird Rates (Paid before 31/7/11 for Melbourne; 30/9/11 for Kincumber): $650 live-in (highly recommended) or $400 live-out. Normal Rates: $700 live-in, $450 live-out. Tuition, workbook, refreshments, accommodation and all meals included.
