Retirement is a significant life transition for all people working in professions with a strong sense of vocation. It is also a significant issue for ministry spouses and partners. Retirement involves a great many issues such as spiritual (especially sense of call), psychological (life stage), financial, social (establishing and re-establishing enriching social networks), housing and geographical.

No matter whether you are anxious about retirement or expect the next fifteen years to fly by, our retirement planning seminar explores transition issues in health, lifestyle and finances for Deacons and Ministers of the Word!

This education seminar is hosted by the School of Continuing Education with support from the UCA Beneficiary Fund.

Leaders and Presenters:

Rev Ruth Thomas

Rev Ross Kingham
