

The Reverend David Male

Safety Nets or Fishing Nets?

How to create church to connect with the unchurched

Rev. David Male lectures in Pioneering Mission, leads within the UK's fresh expressions movement and is the author of:

Church Unplugged: Remodelling Church without losing your soul

David is passionate about creating communities that connect with unchurched people and helping to create the leaders to enable this to happen. His experience of starting and leading the Net Church over seven years provides many insights and essential learning about making church accessible for people.
