Privacy Information Brochure

THE LEGISLATION

An act of parliament 'Privacy Act 2000' has been passed which sets out new laws in relation to all personal information collected.

The Uniting Church in Australia (NSW Synod), including all congregations and presbyteries, will comply with the new law and the ten National Privacy Principles as stated below:

- collection
- use and disclosure
- data quality
- data security
- openness
- access and correction
- identifiers
- anonymity
- transborder data flows
- sensitive information.

For more information about the Act and the National Privacy Principles contact our Privacy Contact Person or visit the Australian Privacy Commissioner's website at www.privacy.gov.au.

The Uniting Church Synod of NSW has formulated its own Privacy Policy and Privacy Manual which details the Church's position on privacy. A copy is available on request.

WHAT INFORMATION DO WE COLLECT?

Personal information may be collected in a variety of ways including registration or enrolment forms, or in personal notes.

The information collected may include names, addresses, email addresses, telephone and fax numbers, medical details, family details (including spouses, children, guardians & parents' details), credit card and account numbers, and any notes taken for counselling purposes.

HOW ARE WE RESPONDING?

- We will only collect personal information if it is necessary for our mission and ministry.
- Individuals will be notified of our intended uses of the personal information at the time of collection.
- Personal information will be securely stored and not disclosed to other parties without the individual's consent.
- If you become aware that your congregation/presbytery is holding personal information which is no longer required, incorrect, or out of date, please notify them so they can amend or destroy the information. This will be done in a secure and sensitive way.

YOUR RIGHTS

If you would like to view your personal information, you should contact your local congregational/presbytery Privacy Contact Person.

If you have any questions about the personal information the church has about you, put your concern in writing.

If your concern is not addressed to your satisfaction, then forward your concern to the Synod Privacy Officer who's address is on the back of this brochure.

If you still feel that your concerns have not been resolved, your complaint can be sent direct to the Privacy Commissioner's office (a Federal Government Department) for their attention.
